

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Chicago Music Association is:

To create wider exposure for Black and minority performers, composers and scholars in music;

To discover, encourage and assist the cultivation of musical gifts among talented, deserving Black youth;

To establish and maintain funds for scholarships;

To present free and inexpensive concerts to the community-at-large;

To develop higher professional standards in music through lectures, conferences, symposia and conventions among fellow musicians and lovers of music.